

Claims

- [c1] 1. The device is a unique way to provide the person sitting in the seat to have a tray for food and beverages. 2. The device can also protect the person from drink and food spillage onto their pants or skirt while eating or drinking. 3. The device is specifically designed to be compact and non visible. 4. The device for the car is design to fit into the door of the vehicle or the central space between the passenger and the driver. For stand alone seats, the device is design to fit into either side of the seat, such as an arm rest. 4. The device can be designed with various sizes and colors to fit various vehicles and seats. 5. The cover piece of the device is designed to be removable for ease of cleaning. 6. The launching of the device can be mechanical or manual to match the design of the vehicle or the seat. 7. The device can have a hole(s) of various size on the service to act as a cup holding utility for the user.